It is my desire to serve the Lord with Koinonos.

I acknowledge that my service with Koinonos is on a voluntary basis, and that there are many risks which must necessarily attend the activities of my service with Koinonos, many of which are not normally experienced in North America. I understand these risks may include, without intending to exhaustively list any such risks: the risk of civil unrest, the risk of kidnapping, the risk of inadequate health care facilities, the risks involved with domestic and international travel, and all other risks not listed above.

I, _____, of _____

I accept the risk of personal injury, illness, death, property damage or theft, loss or destruction which attend the activities that I undertake with Koinonos.

I further hereby agree to hold Dan and/or Barbara Woodring, Jhonny and/or Vanessa Rodriguez, Koinonos, advisory board members or anyone associated with Koinonos, including the Tipton Baptist Church of Tipton, PA, Pastor Timothy Allen, or the leaders or members of that organization harmless from any damages, charges, or expenses resulting from any loss, accident or emergency treatment occurring or required during, or growing out of, my service with Koinonos.

I acknowledge that I am not relying on any representations made to me by Koinonos, or any of its representatives, relating to the conditions in or of my term of service.

I understand that Koinonos has a policy that it will NOT PAY RANSOM if I am taken hostage or kidnaped.
